Nevada raised stock when properly cared for beats the California production in flavor and quality. Gardner takes care of his own herd, and all meat coming from his market is bound to be tender and sweet.
Meat immediately after being slaughtered is never tender and should be kept a day or two. In order to have it fresh after the expired time it should be kept in a cool place. M. C. Gardner sells meat both tender and fresh, as it is always surrounded by ice at a freezing temperature.
How CAN PARENTS—Allow their children to cough and calmly say: "Oh! it's only a little cold," and keep giving them cheap medicines, until they are down with lung fever or consumption, when they can be so easily relieved by using BEGG'S CHERRY COUGH SYRUP? It has no superior and few equals. W. H. Chedie, Druggist.

he Gives the Law to His Property

The following is the last will and testament of Charles Lark Stevenson, of Ormsby County, Nevada.
I, Charles Lark Stevenson, of Ormsby County, Nevada, of the age of 59 years, and being of sound mind and sound and disposing mind and memory, do hereby make, publish and declare this as and for my last will and testament: That is to say,

Ninth—All the property now held by me I direct to be considered as community property.
In witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand and seal this 28th day of October, A. D. 1885.
CHARLES LARK STEVENSON.
The foregoing instrument, consisting of one page besides this, was on the date thereof, by the said testator, signed, sealed, published as and declared to be his last will and testament, in the presence of us who, at his request and in his presence, and in the presence of each other, subscribed our names as witnesses thereto.

Married.
In Seattle, Wash., October 8, 1890, at the residence of the bride's sister (Mrs. J. C. Smart), by Rev. Mr. Garret, Dr. J. B. Laughary, of Seattle, and Miss Fanny Parkinson, of Carson.
The bride is the handsome daughter of the senior editor of the Tribune and the groom a leading physician of Seattle.
The APPEAL throws the slipper of good luck after the happy couple, and wishes them a perpetual honeymoon.
Fell in a Sewer.
Yesterday afternoon J. R. Martin of Empire drove a four-horse wagon and three and half cords of wood over the sewer opposite Benton's stable to unload some wood at the Chinese laundry, when the covering of the sewer broke and left the wagon through. The damage was slight.
Mr. McCallum of the Ozark feels outraged that he was not allowed to vote at Tuesday's primaries. He says it seems strange that they should single him out for a challenge when they refused no other Democrat. Mac may have better luck next time, and he can vote the Republican ticket in November if he wants to.
Dillon and O'Brien are reported to have jumped their bail and started for America.
Justice Miller of the U. S. Supreme Court was yesterday stricken with paralysis.
Slavin and McAlliff have been bound over to be tried for prize fighting.
The County Convention meets at the Court House today.

BARTINE'S SILVER RECORD.
how it is Regarded in Washington.

Cassidy is represented by the Chronicle as the great silver champion of Nevada, and its readers are treated to the information that he is "a man with a dozen men like Bartine in a silver fight."
These statements, however, do not seem to be borne out by the facts. During Cassidy's sojourn in Congress the people of Nevada do not recall any legislation that Cassidy ever accomplished for the white metal. As the editor of the Voice of Silver lives in Washington where in all probability he can see what is going on daily he has a somewhat better opportunity of judging who are the real champions of silver than the gentleman who edits the Virginia Chronicle while he lives in Reno.
While the report of the Silver Committee gives Bartine of Nevada the credit of being the most indefatigable champion of silver in the Lower House.
In order to inform the Chronicle how Mr. Bartine's silver fight is regarded in Washington we quote the following from the National Voice:
This is Mr. Bartine's first session, and in view of the importance of the silver question, it is safe to say that few men have entered Congress better equipped to represent their State upon this important interest than Nevada's representative. Always urbane, attentive and vigilant, he at once became one of the most prominent and determined advocates of the re-monetization of silver by free and unrestricted coinage. Firm in his conviction of the rectitude and necessity of such a course, as shown in his very able speeches, he greatly contributed to the measure of success which has been achieved. Benefitted by the largely enhanced value of silver in the markets of the world Nevada and all silver producing countries have just cause to appreciate such efforts as give assurance of future usefulness. Mr. Bartine is an eloquent, forcible and argumentative debater, always well fortified with data and information. Having the confidence and respect of his associates he always commands their attention, and his intense earnestness entitles him to the gratitude and approval of all who have the complete rehabilitation of silver at heart.

False Alarm.
PARIS, Oct. 8, 1890.
ED. APPEAL:—Hear you have large lot of "copper" to sell. Can you ship us one hundred tons?
FRENCH COPPER SYNDICATE.
APPEAL Office, Oct. 8.
To French Copper Syndicate:—False alarm; haven't 100 ounces.
ED. APPEAL.
The rumor that led to this was the report started by a thoughtless newspaper that the Republican party would "copper" the APPEAL office at the primaries.
For Sheriff.
Mr. Henry Bath announces himself as a Democratic candidate for Sheriff. Mr. Bath is an excellent man, who if nominated would poll the entire independent and Democratic vote of Ormsby. The APPEAL is, however, of the opinion that he would, under even these favorable auspices, be unable to catch up to Mr. Botsford on election day.
J. Morris.
J. Morris, of Virginia City, advertises in another column that he is about to startle the city of Carson with a low rate on dry goods.
Yesterday Mrs. H. G. Shaw, wife of the editor of the Los Angeles Express and daughter of Rev. G. R. Davis, arrived in this city with her two children on a short visit to the old folks.

THE ELECTION LAW.
Nevada Statesmen Leave it Somewhat Ambiguous.

A pamphlet certified to by the Secretary of State as being a full, true and correct copy of the existing statutes in relation to registration and election in the State of Nevada, as the same appears in the enrolled Acts on file in his office, has been received by the County Clerk for distribution among the several inspectors of election. Section 2 of an Act relating to election, page 11 of this pamphlet, says, among other things:
"It shall also be the duty of said Boards of Commissioners, at their first regular meeting in October preceding each general election (and fifteen days preceding each special election), to appoint three capable and discreet persons, possessing the qualifications of electors (who shall not all be of the same political party), to act as inspectors of election at each election precinct; and the Clerk of said Board shall forthwith make and deliver to said inspectors personally, notice thereof in writing or deposit same in the postoffice, registered and postage prepaid, directed to the Registry Agent of the precinct for which each of said inspectors is appointed, and it shall be the duty of the Registry Agents, within ten days after the receipt thereof, to serve the same upon each of said inspectors of election." Section 4 of the Act reads:
"It shall be the duty of the Board of County Commissioners to cause their clerks to furnish the Sheriff with poll books, who shall deliver the same to one of the inspectors at every election precinct in the county, at the time of serving the notices on said inspectors, at least one day before the time of holding any election."
The last section quoted is somewhat ambiguous, but as it evidently means that the Sheriff as well as the clerk shall deliver notices of their appointment to the inspectors it is so construed.

WHAT ON EARTH—is the reason people will not, cannot, or do not see any difference in cheap nostrums put up by cheap John houses or irresponsible parties at enormous profits, rather than take a medicine of world wide reputation and one that is giving universal satisfaction at equal price? No medicine in the world is giving such unparalleled satisfaction for purifying the blood as BEGG'S BLOOD PURIFIER & BLOOD MAKER, and every bottle that does not do its work, will cost you nothing.—W.
